

“If we can reduce the risk of hearing loss we can have a direct impact on a child's ability to learn and develop”

A/Prof Kelvin Kong

ASMR NSW 2021 Gala Dinner

A/Prof Kong is a Worimi man and leading ENT Surgeon, known for breaking cycles of disadvantage for Indigenous Australians.

A/Prof Kong is the 2021 Newcastle Citizen of the Year and was awarded the 2020 Menzies School of Health Research Menzies Medallion for his leadership in Aboriginal health service delivery, advocacy and research.

A/Prof Kong will excite and inspire the ASMR Gala Dinner as he describes his journey from first Indigenous Australian surgeon to improving lives of children and teenagers nation-wide.

5:30 pm, Monday 7th June 2021

Leighton Hall, John Niland Scientia Building
UNSW, Kensington

Book at: www.asmr.org.au/asmr-mrw/nsw/

Individual tickets: $120 or tables of 4 for $480

For more information, contact Luke
L.gordon@sydney.edu.au

UNSW
SYDNEY

Australian Government

National Health and Medical Research Council

Sponsoring ASMR MRW[®] NSW in 2021