

The Australian Society for Medical Research

44th ASMR NATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE

“Hormones, Fertility and Cancer”

Couran Cove Resort, Stradbroke Island, Qld

November 20 – 23, 2005

Media Alert

Wednesday 16th November, 2005

Island Resort Hosts World Experts

Couran Cove Resort on Stradbroke Island is the venue for an important scientific meeting which brings together the distinct but related research streams of:

Hormones, Fertility and Cancer

Our speakers include:

Ken Korach (National Institutes of Health, USA) –

- moving towards a blood test for female infertility

Mary-Claire King (University of Washington, Seattle, USA) –

- the woman who changed the way people think about human genetics!

Niels Skakkebaek (Copenhagen University Hospital, Denmark)

- are environmental toxins harming our babies?

Lance Miller, (Genomic Institute of Singapore)

- a discovery to put the brakes on breast cancer!

Juergen Reichardt (University of Sydney)

- genetic susceptibility to prostate cancer and prevention

David de Kretser (Andrology Australia, Monash Institute of Medical Research)

- sex in the 70's - does more sex mean better health?

Forty-five national and international speakers with a focus on sex, fertility and cancer

In keeping with the traditions of The Australian Society for Medical Research, there is a strong 'young investigator' component of the meeting – the prestigious
Campion-Ma-Playoust Memorial Award
will be announced at the conclusion of the Conference

Further information:

Or

Dr Sarah Meachem 0412 640 774

Ms Catherine West 0415 928 211

Full program available from <http://www.asmr-nsc.org.au/program.htm>