

MEDIA RELEASE May 26, 2006

ASMR QUEENSLAND POSTGRADUATE MEDICAL RESEARCH STUDENT CONFERENCE

What are our future scientific leaders working on ??

- You don't have to be nuts to be psychotic! Dr James Scott, Mater Children's Hospital
- Understanding the genetic background of melanoma – why are some people more susceptible than others? Elke Hacker, QIMR
- Dengue Fever – designing a vaccine. Phillipa Campbell, University of Queensland.
- Developing bone tissue engineering. Karsten Schrobback, QUT, School of Life Sciences
- Depression, pesticides and Parkinson's disease, Nadeeka Dissanayaka, University of Qld.
- We take it for granted everyone is either male or female. It isn't always so! Stephen Bradford, IMB University of Queensland
- A bioactive wound dressing? Erin Rayment, QUT, School of Life Sciences
- Obesity – we are now one of the fattest developed nations. Developing anti-obesity strategies. Hua Su, University of Queensland.
- Building better receptors to fight cancer. John Miles, QIMR
- Suffer from migraine? It may all be in the genes.... Natalie Colson, Griffith University.

Media contact for interviews: Paula Hawthorne 0415 574 638

Or

Catherine West 0415 928 211